

Going Ashore: Tender Service

When going ashore in Bora Bora, guests are required to bring with them their ship card, as well as a government issued photo ID like a Driver's License or a copy of their passport. The passport itself will not be available as the officials will have them for clearance procedures.

When you and your entire party are ready, proceed directly to the tender boarding platform on A Deck, mid ship. Tender Tickets will NOT be required today. Please note there may be a short wait for the next available tender. As a reminder: Regular tender service will resume beginning at 7:00am this morning.

Please allow up to 45 minutes for a complete transfer from ship to shore.
