King Neptune Ceremony

When a ship crosses the equator, a time honored ceremony takes place - a tradition no sailor ever forgets. It involves elaborate preparation by the "shellbacks" (those who have crossed the equator before) to ensure that the "pollywogs" (those who are crossing the equator for the first time) are properly indoctrinated. Join us today as Westerdam's pollywogs appear before King Neptune and his Royal Court, including the Prosecutor who will officiate the ceremony.
