Guest Lecturer Series: Charles McClelland
Charles McClelland weaves the experiences of his life growing up in the Panama Canal Zone and his travels throughout Latin America and the Caribbean into his lectures. Drawing from his personal experiences, he shares interesting firsthand accounts of his travels throughout the region. His appreciation of and enthusiasm for the people, cultures and history of Latin American countries are contagious and provide a special energy to his lectures. Look out for his first lecture tomorrow morning April 14, at 10:00am in the Vista Lounge about the Panama Canal.
