100th Anniversary ANZAC DAY Dawn Service

ANZAC Day is a national day of remembrance in Australia and New Zealand that broadly commemorates ALL Australians and New Zealanders "who served and died in all wars, conflicts, and peacekeeping operations" and "the contribution and suffering of all those who have served". Observed on the 25th of April every year, ANZAC day was originally to honor the members of the Australian & New Zealand Army Corps, whose soldiers were known as ANZACS. This day marks the anniversary of the first campaign at Gallipoli against the Ottoman Empire during World War 1. This military campaign led to major casualties for both forces. It reminds us of the soldiers who would awake before the dawn and ready themselves for battle.

Please see your Today On Location Guide on Saturday April 25 for the time and location of this Service.
